Secret food tours for the curious...

Imagine being welcomed home in a neighborhood that you've never been to yet tonight it smells, feels, and tastes like home sweet home.

This is walking, food tour that dives deep into the culture of Seattle by cutting off the beaten tourist path for a movable feast. 3-stops between appetizer, entree, and dessert for 9-courses highlighting the flavors make each Seattle neighborhood unique.

Expect tried and true local favorites, award winners, and hidden gems. Our dining, concierge will tailor the menu to each guest, tend the time, and the bill allowing you to dine the way the chef intends.
Pricing & Summary

Each dinner is custom tailored. The prices listed below reflect the general product pricing and may vary based on your experience.

PROGRESSIVE DINING

A walking food tour between appetizer, entree, and dessert. Three stops for a total of 9-courses highlighting the spice and flavor that make each Seattle neighborhood unique.

$93

BEVERAGE PAIRING

Curated by our sommelier team and paired for the course receive one glass of wine, beer, cocktail, or non-alcoholic beverage at each location to complement the meal. (3-glasses)

$34

HOW PROGRESSIVE DINING WORKS...

Once Confirmed: 24-hours prior to your tour you will receive an email with a glimpse into the menu and the precise location and time to meet.
Bellevue

Bellevue is the area’s 2nd downtown also boasting glassy skyscrapers and headquarters of companies like Expedia, Microsoft, Concur, and Eddie Bauer. Bellevue has best in class shopping at the Braevers, modern boutiques to flagship department stores, and of course some of the area’s best undiscovered restaurants. Just a short drive across Lake Washington, along the longest floating bridge in the world, Bellevue is an international diners delight boasting some of the best Italian, New American Contemporary, Asian and fusion restaurants anywhere in the region.

Belltown

Just north of downtown, this neighborhood boasts a mix of bustling bars, eateries, high-rise condos and trendy dining and shopping spots. Belltown is a neighborhood where going hungry isn’t an option.

Capitol Hill

Global flavors rule this eclectic neighborhood just east of downtown, find a colorful, urban scene where many streets boast a metropolitan buzz and others emanate a tree-lined, residential calm. This is the city’s LGBTQ hub, but visitors and locals of all sorts flock to Capitol Hill. Join us as we immerse ourselves in the global flavors that rule this eclectic neighborhood east of downtown you’ll find a colorful, urban scene where many streets boast a metropolitan buzz.

Columbia City

Columbia City is a diverse area with historic homes and small-town storefronts and an international mix of restaurants and cafes. Listed as the #10 most desirable neighborhood in Seattle and we can tell you it is delicious.

Downtown Seattle

For a true taste of the city, there is no better place to start your trip than at the center of Seattle. This is home to everything rom glassy skyscrapers to historic brick buildings, modern boutiques to flagship department stores, and of course some of the country's hottest restaurants. Join us for an authentic taste of the city.
Madison Valley

Madison Valley has long been a destination for anyone in Seattle who wants to enjoy a picturesque and chic place to spend the day or evening. The whole neighborhood has reputation of delicious restaurants that has a relaxed yet chic feel.

Pike Place Market

Food-focused travelers will want to wander produce stalls and sample the fruit pieces on offer, from crisp Washington apples to peaches, depending on the time of year. If you're looking to eat al fresco, pair the fresh fruit with specialty cheeses and charcuterie for a picnic lunch. Stop between tastes at a homegrown Greek yogurt base with a cult following, or Seattle staple cheese shop for a stadium of its signature Mac and cheese. Don't be deterred by the line outside for a piroshki—the Russian pastries (beef and cheese are a crowd favorite) are worth the wait.

Pioneer Square

This on-trend culinary scene offers something for every craving and culinary desire. Pioneer Square was the original heart of the city in Seattle's early days. Now more than a century later, the historic neighborhood is bustling once again with historic brick buildings and many buzz-worthy restaurants.

Queen Anne

Culture takes center stage in Queen Anne, where any foodie can find a fix among Queen Anne's diverse eateries, bustling bars, and attraction-heavy Seattle Center. With bustling bars, restaurants, and attraction-heavy Seattle Center in Lower Queen Anne and historic houses, quaint shopping streets, and quiet parks high up on a hill in Upper Queen Anne, this distinct neighborhood has something for everyone.
Contact Us

Reserve today at: www.theprettyfork.com
hi@theprettyfork.com | 206-902-0070